The present Volunteering Protocol is hereby entered into, as part of the student's educational and training path, serving as a pedagogical instrument.

Its main aim is to provide the student with the opportunity to apply and develop technical, interpersonal, and organizational skills through contextualized learning. This learning results from meaningful experiences, promoted through interaction between the student, others, and the surrounding environment, contributing to the student's holistic development.

Accordingly, this protocol supports the development of the competencies set out in the Student Profile at the End of Compulsory Education, being fully aligned with pedagogical requirements.

This protocol is governed by the following terms and clauses:

Clause 1

This protocol sets out the conditions under which the volunteering period shall take place, which will be supervised by the Host Institution in the area of animal protection, welfare, and promotion of resident animals within the Association.

Clause 2

1. The volunteering activities shall follow a plan prepared jointly by the designated supervisor at the Host Institution and the student, which must include the duration and schedule of the volunteering period.

Clause 3

Obligations of the Volunteer:

- a) Provide to the supervising teacher the following evaluation documents:
 - A descriptive and reflective report containing a personal, well-grounded and critical analysis of the activities carried out during the volunteering period;
 - A record of tasks and attendance, duly signed and stamped by the Host Institution;
- b) Comply with the activities set out in the Plan attached to this protocol, which forms an integral part of it;
- c) Respect the internal rules and regulations of the Host Institution;
- d) Be diligent, punctual, disciplined, and maintain positive interpersonal relations;
- e) Justify any absence to both the Host Institution's supervisor and the supervising teacher at [Name of the Educational Institution];
- f) Maintain strict confidentiality, during and after the volunteering period, regarding any information obtained, which may not be disclosed publicly.

Clause 4

Obligations of the Host Institution:

- a) Provide appropriate working conditions as established in the agreed volunteering plan;
- b) Monitor and guide the Volunteer in the performance of their activities;
- c) Issue a certificate confirming the Volunteer's participation.

Clause 5

Obligations of the Educational Institution:

- a) Ensure coordination with the Host Institution throughout the volunteering period;
- b) Guide and support the Volunteer during the development of their activities;
- c) Verify compliance with the plan prepared by the Host Institution's supervisor together with the student;
- d) Prepare and formalise the present Volunteering Protocol.

Clause 6

The volunteering period does not establish any form of employment relationship between the Volunteer and the Host Institution. No employment, service provision, or similar contractual bond is created by the start or conclusion of this volunteering activity.

Clause 7

The Host Institution or the Educational Institution reserve the right to interrupt or terminate this protocol and bring the volunteering period to an end at any time, should the Volunteer's behaviour compromise the normal functioning of services.

This protocol is executed in triplicate and signed in good faith by all parties.
